CHICAGO AND ST. LOUIS BOTH GO DEMOCRATIC

Windy City Commits Itself to Municipal Ownership---Late Election News.

Chicago, April 5.—A political tornado yesterday overwhelmed one of the most ruggedly unique leaders in the country. Incidentally the Republican party met defeat in a memorable effort to capture the mayoralty of Chicago. As a direct result the city is officially committed to the policy of the quickest possible cession of private franchises for public utilities. Municipal ownership is especially directed towards street car lines, valued high up in the millions.

After winning successively four remarkable biennial fights of independent against the regular Republican party organization here, John Maynard Harlan, son of Associate Justice Harlan, of the United States supreme court, was yesterday a loser as a Republican candidate for mayor. The defeat is attributed to an extraordinary whirl of causes, starting with political revenge and taking in a wide sweep embracing the most modern economic theories as a factor. The victor is Judge Edward F. Dunne, a Democrat.

Seldom, if ever, has Chicago witnessed a more lively, picturesque contest. Today, particularly, the city was hideous with the ringing of cowbells and the roar of cannon crackers.

Corporations Not Afraid.

Chicago, April 5.—From a survey of the new city council membership as regards the probable action on municipal ownership of the street railways, friends of the corporations today assert that they are not fearful of the results of any legislation that may come before the councilmanic body as a result of the election of Judge Dunne as mayor.

Rolla Wells Won.

St. Louis, April 5.—Mayor Rolla Wells, democrat, was re-elected yesterday by a plurality of 1,425. The democrats elected twenty-six of forty-five officials, for whom the people balloted, exclusive of members of the board of education.

All But One Democrats

Oyster Bay, April 5.—Every Democratic candidate with the exception of town clerk was elected here at the summer home of President Roosevelt yesterday. As a result the Democrats will control Nassau county.

Arkansas Elections.

Little Rock, Ark., April 5.—Municipal elections were held throughout Arkansas yesterday. In the cities of Little Rock, Argenta, Pine Bluff, Hot Springs and Helena the democratic tickets were elected without opposition for the most part. At Alma, W. P. Pitcock defeated his son, W. R. Pitcock, for city marshal. At Fort Smith indications are that the entire democratic ticket was elected. At Eureka Springs and Corning propositions to annex the outlying territory were voted on favorably. In many of the towns non-partisan tickets were elected, political lines not being laid down.

Nebraska Results.

Omaha, Neb., April 5.—City and village elections were held at all points in Nebraska yesterday with the exception of Omaha, which is governed by special charter. A majority of the smaller towns reporting early elected city tickets favoring high license of the liquor business. Interest generally centered in the license issue, and party lines when drawn, usually were on the issue of

"wet" and "dry." This was especially a feature of the election in Lincoln and several of the larger cities.

BOARD OF WORKS

WILL HOLD ITS REGULAR MEETING THIS AFTERNOON.

Preparations Being Made to Complete Broadway—City Hall Elevator.

The board of public works will meet this afternoon in regular session but will have little to do. The plans and specifications for the improvements of South Third and Broad streets are still incomplete and this is the only important matter the board desires to rush through.

The Nashville Roofing and Paving company is getting ready to complete Broadway, which was left unfinished last fall by the arrival of cold weather. Foreman McDonald has been here for several days, and the two rollers have arrived and are being unloaded near the dispatcher's office.

The cost of an elevator in the city hall will be between $900 and $1,000. Members of the board of works state that they will report to the legislative boards what the improvement will cost and then the boards can decide about ordering the elevator.

Some of the members of the city council were so displeased over the appointment of John Agnew to the city council Monday night that they threatened to resign, but the mayor proceeded to appoint anyhow. The recalcitrant councilmen are now somewhat placated, however, but declare the will make it so warm for him in the board that he will resign. They are very hot against the mayor for the appointment.

City Solicitor Ed. Puryear and Attorney Hal Corbett, the latter representing the Commercial club, will meet sometime this week to arrange a telephone franchise ordinance. On account of several important actions in circuit court which took the time of both attorneys, the conference which was originally intended to have been held the fore part of the week, was postponed.

Shot Sleeping Policeman.

Warsaw, April 5.—While everyone was asleep in the hospital in which are the three policemen who were injured by the explosion of a bomb thrown into the police station at Praga, a suburb of Warsaw, March 26, an unknown man entered the ward and went to the bedside of Policeman Sarap at whom he fired his revolver three times. One shot took effect in the back of the policeman. The assailant escaped. Sarap has been especially hated on account of his brutality in recent riots.

There will be a live bird match shoot at Wallace park tomorrow afternoon between two squads of five men each, one squad to be managed by Captain Jim Weille, the other by Henry Beyer. The prize the squads will shoot for is $25.

NEGRO DESPERADO BLEW OUT BRAINS

Preferred Death to Capture, for Shooting Fulton Officer.

Henry Hutchinson, Closely Pursued to Gravel Switch, Killed Himself.

SLIPPED OUT OF TOWN TODAY

Henry, alias Charles Hutchinson, the negro who shot Officer W. Y. Eaker at Fulton, Ky., night before last, committed suicide this morning shortly before noon, one and a half miles from Tennessee river bridge, at Gravel Switch, on the Illinois Central railroad by shooting himself in the head.

Last night Hutchinson was located on the north side in Paducah, but seems to have been well protected, as he had escaped when the officers went after him.

Chief Collins kept well informed on Hutchinson's actions and telephoned up the I. C. to head the negro off, if seen. He got word early this morning from persons at Gilbertsville that a negro answering the description of the fugitive was seen crossing Tennessee river bridge and wanted to know if he should be taken dead or alive.

Chief Collins instructed the men to go after him and Messrs. Lee Vickers, John Tichenor, Tom Knight and George Owens started in pursuit.

They crossed the bridge and as there were two long lines of box cars standing at Gravel Switch, which is just on the other side of the river, decided to separate, one taking one line and the other the second.

Knight and Owen ran upon Hutchinson who stood near one end of the string of cars talking to another negro. They commanded him to throw up his hands but he refused. Whipping out his gun the desperado began to fire. Three shots were fired, none taking effect, but as soon as he began shooting the officers pulled their pistols and started in pursuit, firing as they ran.

The negro kept on down the railroad a few car lengths and realizing he would be taken, stopped, wheeled about and fired two shots, the remaining loads in his pistol, into his forehead.

The fugitive dropped to the ground and remained motionless, and death is said to have been instantaneous, the second bullet having entered the brain.

Chief Collins was notified of the suicide and ordered the body brought back to Paducah, and it will arrive at 4:30 this afternoon.

When Chief Collins learned this morning that Hutchinson was seen near Gilbertsville, he started Detectives Moore and McCumsey upon the noon train, which was late, to head him off at Kuttawa. They left before word of the suicide was received here.

Hutchinson, it appears, is a brother to Waddie Hutchinson, to whom the letter found in the trunk yesterday was addressed. Two negroes in jail at Hickman, to which place they were spirited from Fulton, yesterday, claim to be named Waddie and Rittenhouse Hutchinson, and admit that they were with Henry, or Charles Hutchinson, the negro arrested here yesterday, when he shot Officer Eaker.

It is not known how or when Hutchinson slipped out of Paducah, but he is believed to have done it sometime before daylight. Every avenue leading out of the city had been closely guarded and it is remarkable that he was able to escape at all.

Chief Collins was determined to have the man dead or alive and had spent his own money since the desperado made his escape from the Paducah police at the station yesterday to keep on his trail.

Lieutenant Moore, when he arrived at Gravel Switch this afternoon, readily identified the negro as the right one, and telephoned the fact to Chief Collins.

After escaping from his hiding place under the front steps of Mrs. Manie Cobb's residence on Broadway near Sixth, he vanished and was not heard from until last night when he was located at a negro house in the north end of the city but when the police arrived, had again made his escape.

Waddie Hutchinson, the one arrested at Fulton, made a confession to the police and signed it. The confession is in the hands of Detective McCumsey. The negroes who were taken to Hickman and placed in jail say that Hutchinson simply pulled his gun, when he saw he was under arrest, and fired.

Charles Galt, the boy who gave the Paducah police information which led to the arrest yesterday, is in Louisville, his home, and can be secured whenever desired for a witness. He saw the shooting.

THREE KILLED

By An Explosion in a Connecticut Factory.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 5.—In a terrific explosion that blew to pieces one of the brick buildings of the Union Metallic Cartridge Co., shortly before the close of the day's work yesterday, three men were instantly killed.

Great crowds gathered and in the panic that followed women fainted and made frantic efforts to get within the walls surrounding the plant to seek their friends and relatives, as it was reported that many lives were lost. They were held in check, however, and the employees in the other buildings made their escape in safety.

The apparent horror of the situation was increased by the breaking out of fire and the appearance of ambulances and fire wagons, which rattled to the factory. A few moments after the explosion occurred the fire department arrived on the scene and succeeded in checking the flames quickly.

The only man in the building at the time, John Henry, was blown through the roof with a great mass of debris. He was dead when picked up. Two helpers, Michael Hurley and Wm. Bayless, working near the building, were also killed.

The loss to the company will be about $30,000.

EARTHQUAKE DOES DAMAGE IN INDIA

Eleven Shocks Were Felt---Loss of Life Is Feared.

England Accuses Germany of Violating Agreement Relative to Possessions in Western Hemisphere.

BIG PROJECT BEING TALKED OF

THOUSANDS KILLED BY AN EARTHQUAKE.

Lahore, April 5.—Reports constantly increase the list of casualties and figures as to the amount of damage done by the earthquake felt over a wide territory of India yesterday.

Thousands are dead, and many lack food. In many places the people are suffering greatly.

In some places the entire native population lies buried in the ruins of the towns razed by the awful shocks.

Calcutta, April 5.—Much damage was caused by an earthquake through out India yesterday. At Mussoree it was impossible for a person to stand without support.

Eleven shocks were distinctly felt. Considerable damage was done. The sharpest earthquake shocks within the memory of the living inhabitants were felt at Lahore, and most of the people left their swaying and creaking houses to seek safety in the open. Damage was extensive.

It is feared there was considerable loss of life. Simla, Delhi and Agra were severely shaken.

England Not Satisfied. London, April 5.—In the house of lords the earl of Jersey asked the government to say what action had been taken regarding the treatment of British traders by the German government in the Marshall and Caroline islands. His lordship said the question affected the general treatment of British traders in the Pacific by Germany and it was the duty of the government to see no right of British trade was sacrificed or absorbed by Germany or any other power.

Lansdowne said the matter was engaging the close attention of the government and the most urgent representations had been made to Germany.

He added that the situation was most unsatisfactory. In fact, there had been a violation of Germany's agreement securing equal rights to British and German traders in German possessions in the western hemisphere. At present he was unable to say what reply had been received from the German government, but the house might rest assured the matter would not be allowed to drop.

Sort of Pipe Dream. St. Petersburg, April 5.—Baron Leitch De Lobel, representing a French group which is engineering a project of connecting the railroad system of Russia and America by means of a railroad and tunnel under the Behring Straits, has presented the matter to Minister of Railroads Hilkoft and Minister of Finance Kokovoff. Although the proposition is regarded as being a good deal in the nature of a "Jules Verne dream" the ministers agreed to consider it and a commission of both ministers has been formed to examine plans and report upon them.

A Fatal Duel. Berlin, April 5.—Baron Koblingky and Herr Zeplitz fought a duel with pistols here today. Zeplitz was shot through the stomach, causing death. Differences in political opinion was the cause.

RECORD BREAKING TIME MADE BY PRESIDENT

One Stop Made in Kansas---Several Speeches Made in Various Places.

Parsons, Kan., April 5.—President Roosevelt and party arrived here this morning and this was the only stop in Kansas.

The president appeared and was greeted with cheers. He made a brief address, saying: "When a man does the best he can he has done well, no matter how little may be accomplished. That's what I'm striving to do, and that's all any of us can do."

St. Louis, April 5.—From Louisville to St. Louis President Roosevelt took more than a passing interest in Indiana and Illinois, the two states through which his special train passed. He discussed with his guests the relative merits of the states from an agricultural point of view, and the warmth of people as displayed at the various places the special stopped or hesitated.

At a dozen or more towns the train slowed down and at most of these great crowds were at the depot cheering as long as the train was in sight. He made three speeches en route. They were at Milltown, Ind., Huntington, Ind., Mount Vernon, Ill.

At East Junction, near Princeton, Ind., where a change of engines was made, the president jumped down from the rear platform of the train to shake hands with a number of employees of the railroad shops there. The train ran through Princeton slowly to give the president opportunity to hastily review several hundred school children that had been assembled near the railroad tracks. At Huntington, Ind., the president said: "There is one thing I am always impressed with in going through this country and that is, that down at the bottom, east or west, north or south, wherever you meet the average American, he is a pretty good American."

"In greeting all of you, I want to say that while I am particularly glad to see the men and women, I think I am even more glad to see the children. I think the American stock is a middling good one, and I do not want to see it die out. I see here men who wear the button that shows that they fought in the great war. They have left us a legacy not only of how to do our duty in war, but in peace. Let us of the younger generation try to keep up their standard."

At Mt. Vernon, Ill., the president expressed his delight to be in Illinois today and added: "I want to say a word of special greeting to two bodies here; in the first place to the men of the great war, to the men who actually did the deed instead of talking about it, and in the next place to you young people, boys and girls; for it is going to depend upon what you do and the way you are brought up whether thirty years hence we are as proud of this country as we are now. One word to the fathers and mothers; in bringing to the children do not make the mistake of trying to bring them up merely so that everything shall be as easy as possible, but so that they will be able to do the best that can be done with life, which is certain to be a little rough at best. Teach them not to shirk difficulties, but to overcome them."

St. Louis, April 5.—The special train bearing President Roosevelt and party pulled into East St. Louis, on time last evening, reaching the Illinois Central belt line at 7 o'clock, and was transferred over the river to St. Louis. When the train stopped at North Market street station President Roosevelt was at dinner and did not appear.

The people congregated, cheered lustily in the hope of inducing a glimpse of the president, but almost before the first cheers had died away the switching engine began shunting the train to the Missouri, Kansas & Texas road. At 8:30 the switching was complete and the train pulled out.

In Indian Territory. Vinita, Ind. Ter., April 5.—President Roosevelt was given a monster reception on his arrival here. The band played, a salute was fired and every building was decorated with flags and bunting. The president made a brief speech.

city is gaily decorated and the entire population participated in the great demonstration. An enormous procession, picturesque in the extreme, marched, and thousands of people joined in the march to Uyen Park. At the park the procession was reviewed by prominent men.

Sergius' Assassination. Moscow, April 5.—The trial of the murderer of Grand Duke Sergius will take place before a class jury, but behind closed doors. The police inquiry has failed to establish the identity of the assassin. Grand Duke Sergius was assassinated here Feb. 17.

Not Fit to Be Czar. London, April 5.—Henry Labouchere, in an article in Truth, says: "From what I hear from persons who certainly are likely to know what transpires at the Russian court, I believe the stories about the czar's depression and despair are false. On the contrary he follows his usual avocations. Nothing that has transpired seems to have had any effect on his spirits. This only confirms the view that there never was a man more unfit to be the autocrat of an empire."

Quiet at the Front. Harbin, April 5.—Affairs at the front are generally quiet, excepting for skirmishing by Mischchenko's Cossacks.

Reports are revived of a movement of a Japanese flying column northward through Manchuria in the direction of Tsitsihar.

The losses and destruction of commissariat stores at Mukden, Hussital, Tie Pass, Kailuan and Changtai have been a heavy deprivation to the Russian army. As a result prices of forage and provisions has considerably increased.

No Peace at Present. St. Petersburg, April 5.—The Novoe Vremya in an inspired article attacks the attempts of President Roosevelt at mediation, and says that peace at the present time is impossible.

The Grand Jury Made Its First Report of the April Criminal Term Today

The grand jury, which went into session Monday morning, made its first report this morning, returning seven indictments and the minutes in two cases where the defendants are in jail or out on bond.

They are: One against Mary Moody and Neb Banks, colored, grand larceny, for the theft of a grip full of clothes belonging to John Sloum from Chicago. The grip was stolen off a hack when Mr. Sloum, who is president of the National Blacksmiths' union, was coming to Paducah to address the local union.

A Dollar's Worth Free To An Rheumatic Sufferer

I ask no deposit—no reference—no security. There is nothing to risk—nothing to promise—nothing to pay, either now or later. Any Rheumatic sufferer who does not know my remedy may have a full dollar's worth free to try.

I willingly make this liberal offer because I know that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy may be relied upon ALWAYS to bring the utmost relief that medicine can. Years before I discovered this remedy, I studied the nature of Rheumatism. For Rheumatism is really Crystallized Poison.

Your blood is always full of poison—the poison you eat and drink and breathe into your system. It is the purpose of the blood to absorb and carry off this poison. And the kidneys, which are the blood filters, are expected to cleanse the blood and send it back through the system clean to gather more poison which, they, in turn, will eliminate.

But sometimes the kidneys fail. And sometimes, from some other cause, the blood gets so full of poison that they cannot absorb it all. This is the start of Rheumatism. The poison accumulates and crystallizes. The crystals look like little grains of sugar or of fine white sand. The blood carries them and they increase in size. Then, when it can carry them no longer, it deposits them in a joint—on a bone—anywhere. The dull ache in your leg—the dull ache in your arm on a rainy day—these are the outward signs of the unseen crystals. And the twisted limbs and unspeakable anguish of the sufferer who has allowed his symptoms to go unheeded and unattended for years—these are the evidences of what Rheumatism neglected, can do.

Rheumatism includes lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, gout—for all these are the results of rheumatic poison in the blood.

Plainly, the first thing to do is to remove the poison. But this is not enough. The "FORMATION" of the poison must be stopped, so that nature may have a chance to dissolve and eliminate the crystals which have already formed unless this is done, there can be no cure—no permanent relief.

I searched the whole earth for a specific for Rheumatism—something that I or any physician could feel safe in prescribing—something that we

Will Vote for a Successor.

The Paducah Uniform Rank, K. of P., has been informed that Thomas P. Satterwhite, Jr., who has taken a prominent part in all Knights of Pythias movements in Kentucky, has resigned his commission as brigadier general of the Uniform Rank of Kentucky.

The resignation was handed in to Gen. J. R. Carnahan. Mr. Satterwhite has also resigned as chairman of the entertainment committee of the Confederate Veteran reunion, which will be held in Louisville in June, and Breckinridge Castleman has been elected in his stead. Both resignations were on account of bad health and lack of time.

The election of a successor to Mr. Satterwhite as commander of the Knights of Pythias of Kentucky has been called for tomorrow, April 6, on which day all the staff officers and the heads of the companies throughout Kentucky will cast their votes for some man to be their head for the next four years.

Mr. Satterwhite is well known in Paducah. Judge R. T. Lightfoot, of Paducah, is major on his staff of the Uniform Rank.

Library Board Met.

The public library board met last night in regular session, and decided to have about sixty of the volumes in the library rebound, as their condition is such that a new binding is necessary. The library board received a list of new books yesterday and desires to get a number of others as soon as possible, but it has been unable to get very little of this year's appropriation from the city.

KILL THE SERPENT

The worst disease the world has ever known, and the greatest scourge to the human race, is Contagious Blood Poison. One drop of the virus of this loathsome disease will pollute and vitiate the purest and healthiest blood, and within a short time after the first little sore appears the system is filled with the awful poison; the skin breaks out in a red rash, the glands of the groins begin to swell, the throat and mouth become ulcerated, the hair and eyebrows drop out, and often the entire surface of the body is covered with copper-colored spots, pustular eruptions and sickening-looking sores and abscesses. Many a man has been cut down in the prime of life, or his health so impaired by this vile disease that usefulness is destroyed, and he becomes a burden to himself and an object of pity to the rest of mankind. Contagious Blood Poison is the most annoying, humiliating and degrading of all diseases. It is as treacherous and elusive as the serpent. Under the mercury and potash treatment all external evidences of it may disappear, and the victim misled, be buoyed up by false hopes of a cure, while the disease may even then have fastened its fangs in some vital spot within the system, where it is doing its destructive work unseen. Mercury has arrayed against it thousands upon thousands of physical wrecks and chronic invalids who have been dosed for years and their systems saturated with these powerful drugs, only to be harassed by constantly returning symptoms and confronted with unmistakable traces of blood poison years after. As long as your blood is tainted with this awful virus you are a source of infection and danger to all who come in contact with you, and your children will carry in their veins the same dreadful contagion. As long as there is life in the serpent there is danger in its fangs, and so long as any signs of Contagious Blood Poison remain there is danger of infection. Safety lies in crushing out the life of this loathsome disease and killing the serpent, and no remedy known does this so thoroughly and permanently as S. S. S. It is an antidote for this peculiar virus that spreads through the system, defiles the blood and contaminates all healthy tissues and threatens every organ and part of the body.

S. S. S. contains no mineral of any description, but is guaranteed entirely vegetable, and we offer $1,000 for proof that it is not just as we represent it to be. It leaves no bad after-effects, but purifies the blood and at the same time builds up your general health. In chronic or long-standing cases of blood poison, where the stomach and digestion have been damaged by the use of minerals, S. S. S. will prove an excellent tonic and appetizer and helpful in restoring strength and activity to all parts of the system. Kill the serpent, crush out its life, or you are apt to feel the bad effects of the disease all your life. If you will write us fully about your case, our physicians will gladly advise without charge, and mail you a copy of our home-treatment book telling all about Contagious Blood Poison, its different stages and symptoms, and a lot of interesting information about this formidable and much-dreaded disease.

TOWN BURNED

ULLIN, ILL., VISITED BY A DISASTROUS FIRE.

Help Sent From Murphysboro—The Loss Cannot Be Ascertained at Present.

Fire destroyed the larger portion of Ullin, Ill., about 20 miles north of Cairo on the Illinois Central yesterday.

The fire started shortly after midnight and burned fiercely until about 5 o'clock.

The wind was blowing a strong gale and the blaze spread rapidly.

The authorities wired to Mayor Winter at Cairo, asking that he send a fire engine on a special train, but before the message could be delivered a second message arrived stating that Murphysboro had sent an engine and that the fire was practically under control.

A passenger of an Illinois Central train last night stated that the fire had been a very disastrous one and that most of the stores and a large number of residences had been burned.

There is no fire fighting apparatus in Ullin and the flames had to be fought by bucket brigades.

IS NOT PUBLIC.

Tennis Court Is For the Pupils of the School Only.

Because of the fact that school property is public, several persons have been attempting to use the tennis court at the High school, although not pupils in the school.

The tennis court was marked off and the posts set by Prof. Sullivan and school pupils, and is for school purposes.

Several have come in to play when the school pupils were using it, and some little unpleasantness has been occasioned but it is thought after an explanation the court will be left for the pupils alone.

BROUGHT WONDERFUL RELIEF.

"For four years I suffered with profuse and painful menstruation, and never got anything that did me any good until my husband bought me a bottle of Wine of Cardui. One bottle brought me wonderful relief, and I am now on the road to good health." MRS. IDA CAMP, Bear Creek, Alabama.

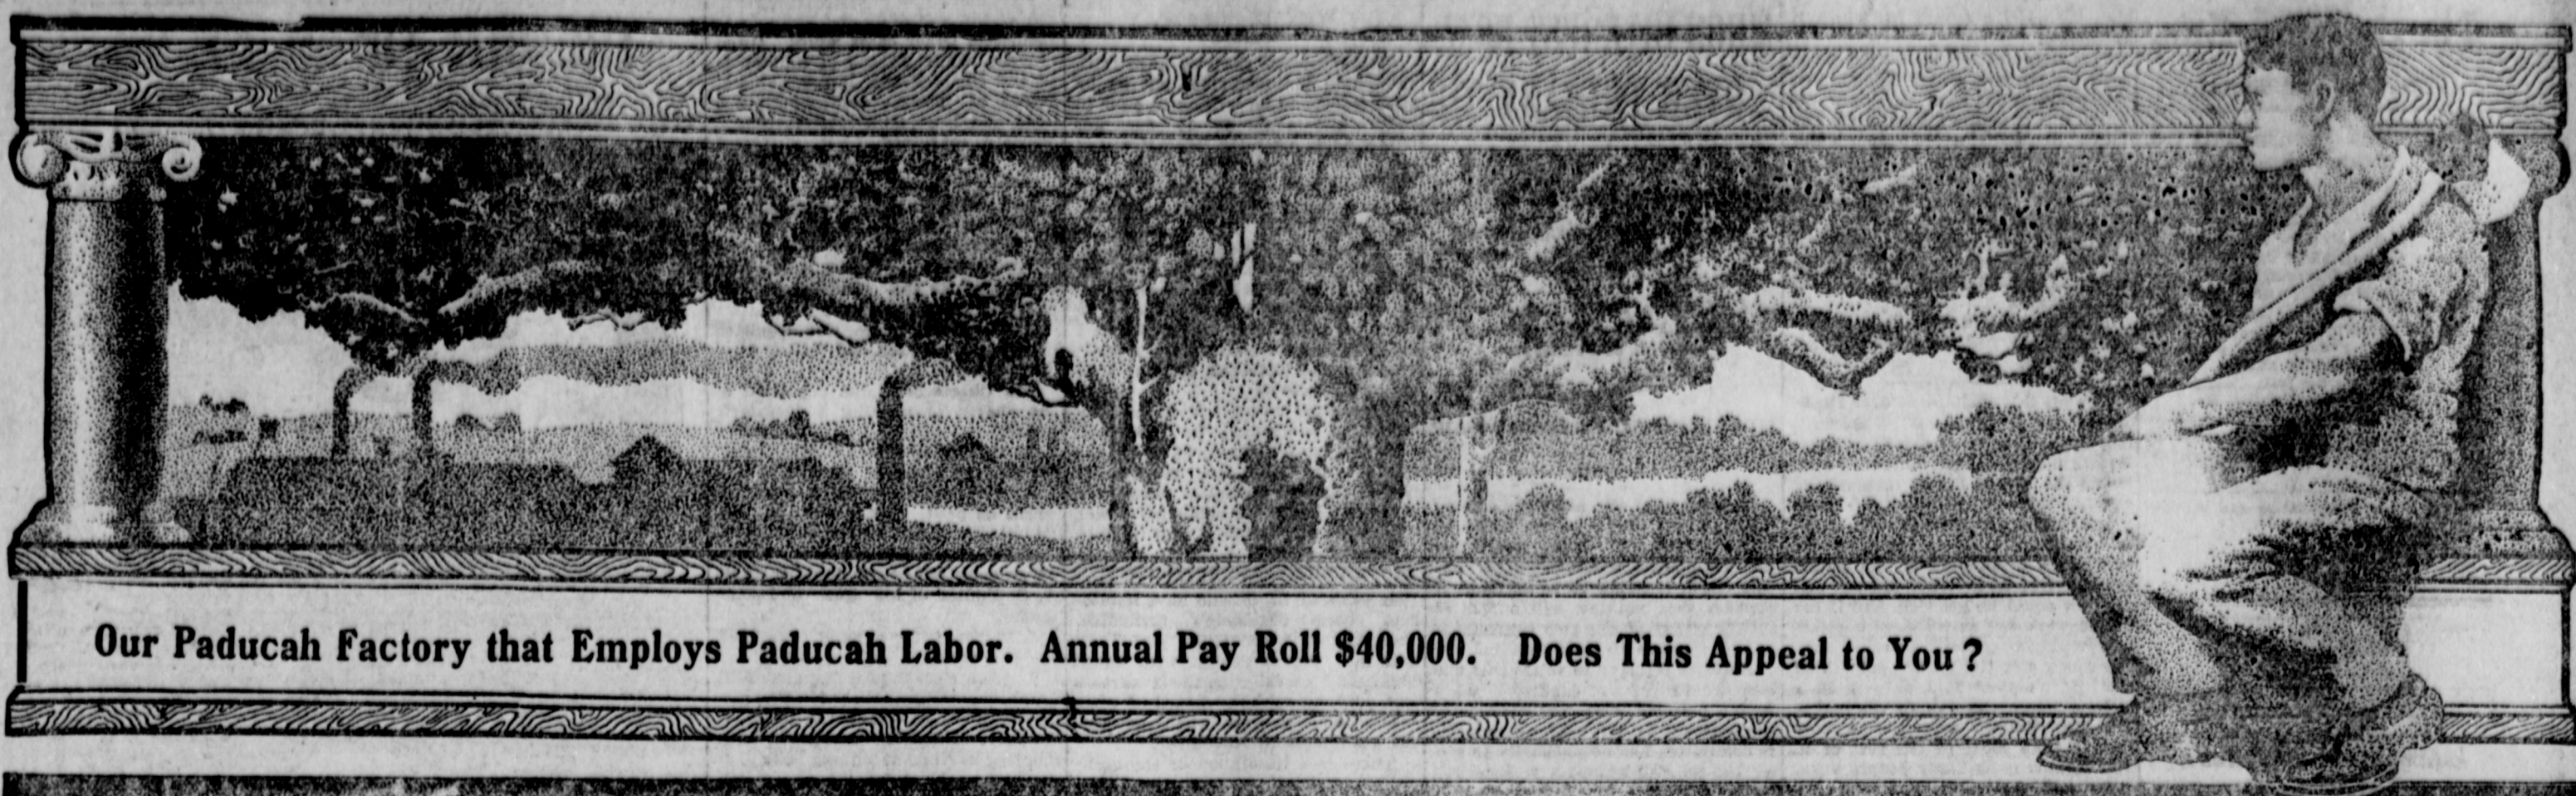

MRS. MARY O. HAHN.

Mrs. Mary O. Hahn, one of the leaders of Chicago's social circles, writes:

For two years I have been troubled with biliousness, caused by inactivity of the liver. I had dizzy spells at times, pains across my back, and a tired heavy feeling, with loss of appetite and nervousness. Our family physician prescribed some liver tablets which certainly did not help me in the least. I took Apollinaris and other mineral waters, but my complexion became more yellow and my general health worse. Reading over one of your little booklets I decided to give Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin a trial and am so glad that I did. One bottle did more for me than $10.00 worth of other remedies. I knew at once I had the right remedy. I kept taking it for several weeks, when I considered myself completely cured. My skin is white and smooth as a baby's, and I feel in excellent health and spirits, thanks to your Syrup Pepsin.

Daily Thought.

Work well done is the highest testimonial of character you can receive.—Success.

The Weather.

Generally fair tonight and Thursday. Continued cool tonight, probably light frost. Warmer Thursday.

THE USUAL WAY.

It is a pity that a dozen or more men elected in Paducah to represent the people and transact public business in the name of the people, cannot do it in a quick, commonsense way.

There is the license ordinance. For weeks and weeks it was pulled and hailed from solicitor to committee,
then to the boards, and from one board to the other only to be sent back for amendment, revision or further deliberation. Finally the general council got what it wanted, or thought it wanted, but no sooner did the ordinance pass than changes began to crop up.

First the ice business was licensed too high, then the opera house was given a reduction, it wasn't long until the boards decided to reduce the license on both privileges—and now amendments are ordered by the council reducing the license on coal merchants, and repealing that portion of the license ordinance empowering the mayor to revoke saloon licenses for Sabbath violation. Is all this dilly-dallying, uncertainty and undoing
today-what-was-done-yesterday, necessary? Why pass an ordinance fixing licenses at certain amounts, collect money under it several weeks, and then change it and begin giving back money?

Take the case of the coal dealers.
Three of them paid their licenses
without a protest, but for some reason the mayor decided it was too much, and a repeal was asked. With the city in need of funds, and even now borrowing money for general expenses, it proceeds to give back some of that collected only a few weeks ago, and which was at that time considered perfectly reasonable.

This license ordinance, after the weeks spent on it, was signed by the presidents of both boards, and after being "carefully scrutinized" by his Honor, the mayor, was signed. Yet it hadn't been in effect a month until these same representatives of the people begin tearing it to pieces.

Perhaps some licenses are too high, but why wasn't it known beforehand? How can the people have any confidence in an administration that transacts business in such a slipshod way? As to repealing that portion of the license ordinance which enables the mayor to revoke
a saloon license, the mayor himself will doubtless never permit it, for the repeal can never get the requisite two-thirds vote over the mayor's veto—and of course the mayor will veto it. If the boards didn't want this provision in the ordinance, why did they put it there? Has it had any other effect than keeping all the saloons closed on Sunday?

ENCOURAGE THE CLUB.

The general council could do nothing better than give the commercial club the $100 a month for which it has asked.

This organization is doing a great work for the city, and if it lands two enterprises alone that it is now afflicted with, it will have done enough for Paducah, to justify a $100 month appropriation for the next ten years.

It is true that there is no appropriation for this special purpose
this year, but the money could be taken from the contingent or some other fund. The general council can always get around these technicalities
if it wants to.

It is to be hoped that the members will all vote for the appropriation for the club.

Why all this excitement over Rockefeller and Standard oil? What have they done, murdered somebody, overthrown a government, burned a city, looted the United States treasury, or simply sold coal oil about 30 cents
a gallon cheaper than it used to be sold when the small fry producer supplied a large part of the public demands? If Rockefeller did not sell oil, how could he get rich, and if the people were not satisfied with prices how could he sell oil? Couldn't they buy gas, electricity or something else? If people would only think a moment, they would doubtless realize that Rockefeller's money is no more tainted than most of the rest of it.
The trouble is so many people never stop to think.

Politics is getting more strenuous every day. Out in Atchison, Kan., a candidate for mayor wanted the opera house for a political meeting and a show was booked for it. He hired the show and and threw open the doors free and made his speech in installments between the acts. Needless to say he was elected.

Why not start the work of cleaning up the city? The filth of a winter is undisturbed, and it is very important that it should be disposed of before hot weather. It is time the city started out sanitary inspectors, and the mayor should at once take some steps to do it.

It is very probable that when the president gets back to Washington
not the least pleasant of the recollections of his vacation will be of his brief stop in Kentucky.

Yes, the Democratic county ticket is a good one, but some of those who love it least seem to be Democrats, and they may do something to it in November.

JUSTICE BARBER

WILL REFUND MONEY TO TAX- PAYERS FOR THE COUNTY.

Judge Lightfoot to Appoint Him For This Work—Will Begin the Task Soon.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot stated
this morning that he would this week name Justice R. J. Barber as accountant to take charge of Inspector H. B. Hines' report and pay back the excess taxes collected by the sheriff and to return the tax receipts
given the inspector and other officials
when the investigation of the sheriff's office was made.

Judge Lightfoot stated that Justice Barber is about the best man for the position, being an expert and fully acquainted with this kind of work.
He has been chairman of the finance committee of the fiscal board for years.

The report of Inspector Hines gives the name and address of each taxpayer who has paid too much taxes, and each will be sent a check for the amount.

Sheriff Potter will pay the total amount to the county, and the county will refund it to the taxpayers.
Justice Barber will begin work as soon as the complete report of Inspector Hines is received.

"Laugh and Grow Fat."

Life is such a serious business
with the average mortal that an opportunity for a hearty laugh is more than welcome to most people. "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine," and so do the humorous features of that great metropolitan daily, The Chicago Record-Herald. The first thing that greets you on the first page of every issue is the humorous cartoon by Ralph Wilder, the well known artist, that frequently tells more at a glance than could be conceived in a column of reading matter. Every issue contains also a humorous small story on the editorial page, and the "Alternating Currents" column, written by S. E. Kisser, one of the most popular humorous writers in the country. In addition to all these, the Sunday issue
always includes a comic section,
guaranteed to produce laughter.

MUCH INTEREST NOW OVER PRIMARY TIE

No Agreement Reached Relative to Settling the Contest.

Many Changes Reported in the Politics of McCracken County as Result of Primary.

SOME INTERESTING LATE GOSSIP

A great deal of interest is being taken in how the tie between Messrs.
Joseph Miller and John Smith for the democratic nomination for circuit clerk, is going to be settled. It appears that nothing will suffice to satisfy either of the two contestants
except to have the nomination.

Another primary to settle this one race would be as expensive as a large primary, and would cost approximately $1,000. The democratic committee has no authority to settle the tie, and whatever is done will have to be done by the two contensants themselves and they have decided on nothing.

The first reports of the primary results gave Mr. Miller a majority of 3 votes. The mistake was found when the county committee canvassed
the returns Monday. It was found that Mr. Miller got 13 votes at Cecil instead of 15, and Smith 29 instead of 28 at Clark's River, making the vote a tie. Miller received only 37 votes at Kirkpatrick's instead of 47,
cutting down his vote 10, and Smith received 7 votes instead of 17 at Savages, cutting down his vote ten,
and leaving it still a tie.

Should the democratic nominees be elected in November, a number of changes are anticipated in some of the county offices.

It is likely that if Mr. John Ogilvie is elected sheriff one of his deputies will be Mr. Gus Rogers, who is at present a patrolman, but who was a deputy sheriff for several years under his brother, the late Sheriff Tobe Rogers.

Deputy Circuit Clerk Will Kidd
would probably remain no matter which gets the nomination. Mr. Miller or Mr. Smith, provided the democratic nominee were elected. It is understood that if Justice Barber had been nominated Col. Edward O.
Leigh, private secretary to Gov.
Beckham, would have been offered
the place.

It is not known whom Mr. Hiram Smedley would appoint as deputy county clerk, but it is reported Mr.
Hugh Stapp, one of the candidates for the nomination, will be Mr.
Smedley's deputy in case he is elected.

One thing about Mr. Smedley's race is that he is the only one of the candidates for the nomination who did not claim the earth. All the others claimed they had it nailed down, but Mr. Smedley's characteristic modesty caused him to work hard and claim nothing except that he wanted the office and was working for the nomination, and believed his chances were good.

One unusual thing about the primary is that it has seemingly estranged many life-long friends. The bitterness of that campaign will rankle in the bosoms of at least some of the contestants as long as they live. Likewise with political friendships as well as personal. There has been a kaleidoscopic change in democratic politics in McCracken county which practically eliminates for all other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said druggists Lang Bros., to one of their many customers, "but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that plan.

The Howard Co., in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorized us to sell the regular 50 cent bottle of their specific for half price, 25 cents, and, although we have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

"One great advantage of this specific," he continued, "is its small dose and convenient form. There are 60 doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, and every one has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler
of mineral water.

Time some of those who have heretofore been considered invincible.
Politics and personalities were dragged into the campaign with equal vigor and already ominous threats and predictions are heard of what will be done to some of the successful candidates in November.

There is a likelihood of tranquillity for sometime to come now, however, as the nominees seem to feel the hardest part of the fight is over. The republicans will now put out candidates for a few months, at least.

IN THE COURTS

The first matter acted on this morning by fiscal court, was the county road supervisor salary and election.

The magistrates raised the salary

NOTICE.

Green River Coal Co., et. al., in admiralty, vs. Steamer City of Idaho.
Whereas libels were filed in the district court of the United States for the Western District of Kentucky at Paducah, Ky., on the 27th and 28th
day of March, 1905, by the Green River Coal company and others
against the steamer City of Idaho,
her engines, tackle, apparel, furniture,
etc., alleging in substance that said steamer was indebted to them in the sum of about $— for supplies, material, barge hire, etc., furnished said
steamer and on the credit of same.

That said steamer City of Idaho is justly indebted to them in said sum and that same has never been paid
and prayed process against said
steamer City of Idaho, her engines, tackle, apparel, furniture, etc., and that said steamer be condemned and sold to pay said claims with costs and expenses.

Now, therefore in pursuance to the motion under seal of said court to me directed, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said steamer City of Idaho, or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear in the district court of the United States in the city of Paducah, Ky., on or before the 1st day of May, 1905, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and to make their allegations in that behalf.

A. D. JAMES, U. S. M. W. K. D.
By G. W. SAUNDERS, Deputy.

There is no reason at all nowadays why every man should not wear good clothes.

In no line has there been the marked improvement that there has been in the making of ready-to-wear clothing. A man can get a suit of clothes nowadays for about half what he used to pay for it and get a better suit besides.

We are building up a great business in our clothing department,—a surprisingly good business—but the reasons are not hard to find. We sell you the same suit for $10 that you pay other houses $12.50 for.

Everyday is special price day
for us and from $5 up to $12.50
are our prices.

Seeing is believing, so come,

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME Are Never Without Peruna in the House for Catarrhal Diseases.

W. D. WATSON,
Clovis, Fresno
County, Cal., writes:

"God bless you for what you have done for me. The rheumatism has all disappeared, and today all exclaim,
How well you look! I tell them yes, and I owe it all to Dr. Hartman for his good advice to me. Today find me a free from pain as I ever was. The rainy season has set in here, but the hange hasn't affected me as it used to. I am very thankful that I have found out that you can and will help the suffering ones that will follow your advice. Several have asked me what you'd me, and I tell them. They get the medicine then. We keep Peruna in the house. My daughter has two sons, and they keep well and go to school, and they take the medicine
every day.

"My wife was troubled with a pain in her side for years. Now she is taking your medicine and is real smart. I will to all I can for you and for those who need your advice."

Mr. Jno. O. Atkinson, Independence,
Mo., Box 272, writes:

"Your remedies do all that you claim or them, and even more. Catarrh cannot exist where Peruna is taken according to directions. Peruna completely cured my wife and I of catarrhal troubles of twenty-five years standing. In my opinion as a traveling man I am a walking advertisement of Peruna."

Mrs. Alla Schwardt, Sanborn, Minn., writes:

"I have been troubled with rheumatism and catarrh for twenty-five years.
Could not sleep day or night. After having used Peruna I can sleep and nothing bothers me now. If ever am affected with any kind of sickness Peruna will be the medicine I shall use. My son was cured of catarrh of the larynx by Peruna."—Mrs. Alla

THE QUESTION OF BRUSHES

In our store amounts to this: "the better the bristles, the higher the price." The handle of a brush doesn't matter so much, for, if it is substantial and well finished it fills all requirements.

BUT HOW ABOUT THE BRISTLES?

We have the biggest stock of brushes in Paducah, all selected with an eye to the quality of the bristles.

BROCKWELL CASE WITHOUT PARALLEL

Dr. M. M. Smith Comes to Make Phrenological Study.

Says Medical Profession and Criminologists All Over the World Will Be Interested in Case.

LEFT FOR HIS HOME TODAY.

Dr. M. M. Smith, of Whiteville, Tenn., returned home this morning after a visit to Paducah for the purpose of making a phrenological examination of Mrs. Mary Brockwell, the woman in jail for poisoning her three children. Dr. Smith is a prominent physician, and father of Mr. Aubrey Smith, of the C. E. Jennings real estate agency here, and of Mr. L. O. Smith, of the Equitable Life Insurance society of Louisville, but formerly of Paducah.

He came to Paducah to make the investigation of the Brockwell case solely in the interest of science and to satisfy his own desire for knowledge.

He said while here that it is one of the most remarkable cases in the annals of criminology, although the people of Paducah do not seem to realize it. The case has attracted far more attention among the doctors of Tennessee, he declared, than it has among those here in Paducah, and the medical profession all over the United States and even in London has become interested in the murder.

The reason of this is that the crime is almost unprecedented. Dr. Smith says that mothers have often been known to kill themselves or others for the sake of their children, and have even been known in fits of passion or of insanity to kill one of their own offspring, but for a mother to deliberately poison three children, Dr. Smith says, is something that is most unusual, if not wholly unprecedented, and doctors all over the world will as soon as they learn of it take a great interest in the case.

Dr. Smith while here called at the jail and examined the woman's head. He is an expert phrenologist, and by locating and examining the elevations and depressions on Mrs. Brockwell's cranium, better known as "bumps," one can get a good idea not only of her disposition, intelligence, and good traits, but of her sanity as well.

He made a careful examination, but did not give out a report of what he found, before he left the city. In fact, he will have to make comparisons, etc., before he is ready to report on the case.

It is likely that he will find that he has not taken his trouble in vain, for when the case becomes more generally known, there will be a great demand for just the information he has taken the trouble to come here and obtain.

It is said that one thing that was very evident without much of an examination, however, is that Mrs. Brockwell is of inferior intelligence, even if entirely sane.

The grand jury has heard a number of witnesses in the Brockwell case, but has not finished, and will take up the case again this afternoon.

It is understood that Albritton will not be indicted with her, as there is no evidence, practically, against him.

DO IT NOW.

If you are going to save, do it now. You start the account and let the rest take care of itself. If you have one dollar you have enough to start an account. If you want one you can get a Metal Savings Bank to keep at home and save the small sums you usually waste. If saved they amount to a large sum.

Here's what one of our depositors says: "One of these little banks enables a fellow to save without feeling the drain. You can just drop something into it whenever you want to and in that way you save without hardly missing the money." That's the chief advantage of a Metal Savings Bank. They enable you to save without missing the spending money.

When you save you simply lay aside money for future use. You are not parting with it forever like you do when you spend it. You simply sacrifice the smaller pleasure of spending it now for the sake of the larger pleasure of spending it in the future when it will probably be more useful than it is now. If you ever intend saving, do it now.

Theatrical Notes

It is seldom indeed that a well known "star" chooses a play in which he is not only absent from the stage during one entire act, but allows another member of the cast to score heavily in that act. But in "The Harvester," in which unique play Otis Skinner is soon to be enjoyed by local playgoers at The Kentucky on Friday night, Mr. Skinner in the fascinating role of the gypsy hero does not appear in the second act at all, during which time J. M. Colville as the head reaper, Francois, gives a masterful portrayal and character study and brings down the curtain upon a startling climax of melodramatic force.

"The Girl and the Bandit," a comic opera in two acts, which will be seen at The Kentucky tonight is this season's effort of the Frank L. Perley Opera Co.

This company is newly organized and may be considered as the successor of the famous Bostonians, inasmuch as the manager and proprietor is the man who about ten years ago, saved that famous organization. Mr. Perley is the discoverer of Alice Neilson, Grace Van Studdiford and a score of other prominent American operatic stars.

The opening scene, a wondrously pretty one, is in an Italian city, and the central feature is an old Greco-Latin palace, which has degenerated, or it might be better to say, advanced into usage as a seminary for rich young American women of a marriageable condition. The Principessa di Villamonte, a poverty-stricken old woman, has founded it as a tribute to her knowledge of the world and has made much money from American millionaires, who desire their daughters to marry Italian noblemen of ancient lineage.

She has a beautiful granddaughter, Violetta, by name, and about her, the exquisite love story of the piece centers.

That good old play, "Way Down East," was for the second time presented in Paducah last night at the Kentucky theater. The first time standing room was sold, but last night there was a mere handful at the theater. The play, however, was a treat. The company is fine and everybody knows what the play is. Miss Ruby Bridges makes a pretty "Anna Moore, and the sympathy of the audience is with her from the start. Wm. St. James is fine as Squire Bartlett, and Cyril Raymond is good in the part of David, the son. Arthur Ebbets, as the professor, is clever in one of the principal comedy roles, and J. A. Macurdy as the constable, who sings "All Bound 'Round with a Woolen String," never fails to get a laugh. Ida Ellis as Kate Brewster, is an ingenue of dramatic ability as well as attractiveness, and Laura Daere makes the best of a good character part as Martia, the village gossip. George Leach, as "Hi Heiler," kept the house in a roar, and deserves great credit for his work. Harry Matland as Seth, was one of the best and shared the comedy honors, while the heavy role was gracefully played by J. Angus Gustam.

The scenic effects were very fine and those who missed "Way Down East" missed one of the best on the road.

Mr. Procter L. Daugherty, of Washington, D. C., an electrical inspector for the government, was in the city today and inspected the electric lights and wiring at the custom house. He left at noon.

FOR JOINT TICKET OFFICE IN THE CITY

Railroads to be Asked to Establish One Shortly.

I. C. to be Asked to Put Shed at Depot and Stop Trains at 11th and Broadway Crossing.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETS

The commercial club will make several requests of the railroads this week, one being a matter which the city has been working on for several months. This was decided at the meeting of the commercial club last night.

The railroad companies will be asked to establish a joint ticket and freight office down in the city for the convenience of the merchants and general traveling public. The I. C. will be asked if it cannot stop trains at 11th and Broadway for the convenience of passengers who do not want to ride a mile and a half further and then have to take a cab or car to town and ride another unnecessary mile or two.

The road will also be asked to build a shed over the passenger depot, this being a matter the city has been working on for some time. All requests have been referred to the railroad committee which will probably take action this week.

Col. Ben Weille, who always has an eye out for good, judicious advertisement of the city, stated this morning that the matter of putting up big sign boards on each side of the depot, would be suggested to the club at the next meeting. His idea is to have large sign boards placed in some prominent place where they can be easily seen giving the population of Paducah and a few of the facts connected with the town. The manufacturing and enormous business done by the banks and commercial institutions will also be shown and the boards are expected to prove a great advantage to the city.

The Commercial and Manufacturers' Association did not elect a secretary last night on account of the absence of President A. J. Decker. The salary was increased from $1200 to $1800 a year, however, and everything is in readiness for the election when the time comes.

There were several propositions before the club two from buggy factories, and if they are located here the club will be well repaid for all its work, even if it doesn't do anything else this year.

There are a number of applicants for the secretaryship, among them being the incumbent, Mr. H. E. Thompson, and Messrs. Frank B. May, W. H. Parham and L. A. Boll Jr.

The club will have a delegation to go before fiscal court at the present term and ask for an annual appropriation for the maintenance of the club.

Cures Coughs and Colds.

Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake street, Topeka, Kan., says: "Of all cough remedies Ballard's Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—to speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant to the taste." 25c, 50c $1 bottle.

Will Leave Here.

The Toledo club who have been in training here will leave Paducah and go to Memphis.

About six men will be left here for practice and will join the team at Evansville after the southern circuit has been made. It is said that Manager Finn will not begin releasing players until he reaches Toledo and it is probable not one he now carries will be sent back to the smaller leagues.

AN I. C. EXTENSION.

Surveys Are Now Being Made in Indiana.

Chicago, Ill., April 5.—The Illinois Central has commenced surveys of the Vermillion county and western Indiana coal fields with a view of making an extension of its lines into Indiana. It would have to lay but forty miles of track to reach the Indiana counties. The line as proposed is to extend south from Kankakee, touching a point on the Lake Erie and Western, near Rankin, thus giving an outlet on the Central for the Lake Erie coal. The extension appears reasonable, owing to the announcement that the Vanderbilts are to build from Kankakee to Chicago. With the loss of the Big Four business north of Kankakee, the Illinois Central probably wishes to even up by extending southeast, touching Danville and other important cities. It would then share with the eastern Illinois, the Wabash and Big Four the business in eastern Illinois and western Indiana.

Dope Up Again, Fiend.

The Paducah press is sneering at the news of another survey direct to Mayfield from the new I. C. railroad bridge across the Tennessee river below Gilbertsville exhibits the jealousy of insufferable bigotry and we fully expect the commercial club of that place to send another deputation of protestants to Chicago to "cut it all out."—Mayfield Mirror.

The Wings of the Morning

By LOUIS TRACY
Copyright, 1903, by Edward J. Glode

He rapidly sketched to Iris the defensive plan which the eagle's nest suggested. Access must be provided by means of a rope ladder, securely fastened inside the ledge and capable of being pulled up or let down at the will of the occupants. Then the place must be kept constantly stocked with a judicious supply of provisions, water and ammunition. They could be covered with a tarpaulin and thus kept in fairly good condition.

"We ought to sleep there every night," he went on, and his mind was so engrossed with the tactical side of the preparations that he did not notice how Iris blanched at the suggestion.

"Serenely not until danger actually threatens?" she cried.

"Danger threatens us each hour after sunset. It may come any night, though I expect at least a fortnight's reprieve. Nevertheless I intend to act as if tonight may witness the first shot of the siege."

"Do you mean that?" she sighed. "And my little room is becoming so very cozy?"

Jenks always accepted her words literally.

"Well," he announced, after a pause, "it may not be necessary to take up our quarters there until the eleventh hour. After I have hoisted up our stores and made the ladder I will endeavor to devise an efficient cordon of sentinels around our position. We will see."

Not another word could Iris get out of him on the topic. Indeed, he provided her with plenty of work. By this time she could splice a rope more neatly than her tutor, and her particular business was to prepare no less than sixty rungs for the rope ladder. This was an impossible task for one day, but after dinner the sailor helped her. They toiled late, until their fingers were sore and their backs ached as they sat upright.

Meanwhile Jenks swarmed up the pole again and drew up after him a crowbar, the sledge hammer and the pickax. With these implements he set to work to improve the accommodation. Of course he did not attempt seriously to remove any large quantity of rock, but there were projecting lumps here and inequalities of floor there which could be thumped or pounded out of existence.

It was surprising to see what a clearance he made in an hour. The existence of the fault helped him a good deal, as the percolation of water at this point had oxidized the stone to rottenness. To his great joy he discovered that a few prods with the pick laid bare a small cavity which could be easily enlarged. Here he contrived a niche where Iris could remain in absolute safety when barricaded by stores, while, with a squeeze, she was entirely sheltered from the one dangerous point on the opposite cliff, nor need she be seen from the trees.

Having hoisted into position two boxes of ammunition—for which he had scooped out a special receptacle—the invaluable water kegs from the stranded boat, several tins of biscuits and all the tinned meats, together with three bottles of wine and two of brandy, he hastily abandoned the ledge and busied himself with fitting a number of gunlocks to heavy fagots.

Iris watched his proceedings in silence for some time. At last the interval for luncheon enabled her to demand an explanation.

"If you don't tell me at once what you intend to do with those strange implements," she said, "I will go on strike."

"If you do," he answered, "you will create a precedent."

"I withdraw the threat and substitute a more genuine plea—curiosity," she cried.

"Then you will be gratified promptly. These are our sentinels. Come with me to allot his post to the most distant one."

He picked up a fagot with its queer attachment, shouldered a rifle and smiled when he saw the businesslike air with which Iris slung a revolver around her waist.

They walked rapidly to Smugglers' cove, and the girl soon perceived the ingenuity of his automatic signal. He securely bound the block of wood to a tree where it was hidden by the undergrowth. Breaking the bullet out of a cartridge, he placed the blank charge in position in front of the hammer, the case being firmly clasped by a bent nail. To the trigger, the spring of which he had eased to a slight pressure, he attached a piece of unraveled rope, and this he carefully trained among the trees at a height of six inches from the ground, using as carriers nails driven into the trunks.

The ultimate result was that a mere swish of Iris' dress against the taut cord exploded the cartridge.

"There!" he exclaimed exultantly. "When I have driven stakes into the sand to the water's edge on both sides of the cove, I will defy them to land by night without giving us warning."

"Do you know," said Iris, in all seriousness, "I think you are the cleverest man in the world!"

To make doubly sure he set another snare farther within the trees. He was certain the Dyaks would not pass along Turtle bench if they could help it. By this time the light was falling. "That will suffice for the present," he told the girl. "Tomorrow we will place other sentries in position at strategic points. Then we can sleep in the castle with tolerable safety."

By the meager light of the tiny lamp they labored sedulously at the rope ladder until Iris' eyes were closing with sheer weariness. Neither of them had slept much during the preceding night, and they were both completely tired.

The first streaks of dawn were tipping the opposite crags with roseate tints when the sailor was suddenly aroused by what he believed to be a gunshot. He could not be sure. He was still collecting his scattered senses, straining eyes and ears intensely, when there came a second report.

Then he knew what had happened. The sentries on the Smugglers' cove were faithful to their trust. The enemy was upon them.

At such a moment Jenks was not a man who prayed. Indeed, he was prone to invoke the nether powers, a habit long since acquired by the British army-in-Flanders, it is believed.

There was not a moment to be lost. He rushed into Iris' room and gathered her in his arms. He explained to the girl as he ran with her to the foot of the rock that she must cling to his shoulders with unflinching courage while he climbed to the ledge with the aid of the pole and the rope placed there the previous day. It was a magnificent feat of strength that he essayed. In calmer moments he would have shrunk from its performance if only on the score of danger to the precious burden he carried. Now there was no time for thought. Up he went, hand over hand, clinging to the rough pole with the tenacity of a limpet and taking a turn of the rope over his right wrist at each upward clutch. At last, breathless, but triumphant, he reached the ledge and was able to gasp his instructions to Iris to crawl over his bent back and head until she was safely lodged on the broad platform of rock.

Up he went, hand over hand.

Then before she could expostulate he descended, this time for the rifles. These he hastily slung to the rope, again swarmed up the pole and drew the guns after him with infinite care.

"Now we are ready for them," he growled, lying prone on the ledge and eagerly scanning both sides of Prospect peak for a first glimpse of their assailants.

For two shivering hours they waited there until the sun was high over the cliff and filled sea and land with its brightness. At last, despite the girl's tears and prayers, Jenks insisted on making a reconnaissance in person.

Let this portion of their adventures be passed over with merciful brevity. Both watch guns had been fired by a troop of they-won-monkeys. Iris did not know whether to laugh or cry, when Jenks, with much difficulty, lowered her to Mother Earth again and marveled the while how he had managed to carry forty feet into the air a young woman who weighed so solidly. They sat down to a belated breakfast, and Jenks then became conscious that the muscles of his arms, legs and back were aching hugely. It was by that means he could judge the true extent of his achievement.

At a special meeting of the county commissioners, Deputy County Clerk Wm. Atwell was appointed county clerk of Massac county, Ill., to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, Capt. Samuel Atwell at Metropolis last week.

Barnard residing at 1608 Broadway, says: "My husband had to give up the grocery business on account of so much sickness in the family, and I believe for the last six years I have hardly seen a well day until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at DuBois, Kolb & Co.'s drug store. I heard of them and knew of their benefiting others right here in Paducah, so I made up my mind to try them. My son and I each used a box and we soon found they were just the remedy we needed for we were both troubled with kidney ailments. The lameness left my back entirely and the rheumatism with which I have been afflicted was much improved. We can both highly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills as a kidney remedy of great merit."

RIVER NEWS

The gauge today is 24.4 showing a fall of over a foot since yesterday.

The Dick Fowler left at 8 a. m. for Cairo.

The Joe Fowler arrived from Evansville about 9:30 and left again before noon.

The Tennessee leaves this afternoon at 5 for Tennessee river.

The Russell Lord brought a big tow of ties out of Cumberland river this morning.

The Kentucky will be due tomorrow out of Tennessee river.

The new St. Louis and Tennessee river packet will be launched at Howard's next Saturday. She is a large fine boat.

Capt. Ed. Howard has commenced building another double-hulled steel ferryboat for Capt. Alex M. Halliday, of New Orleans.

Rousters at Cincinnati have been inclined to make trouble during the last week or two. The opening of navigation was the sign for them to get ugly and they refused to work for thirty-five cents an hour. During the winter the city provided for these waifs of humanity and fed them and provided many of them with sleeping quarters. Now that work is plentiful and they refuse to work another plan is being adopted. A rouster who refuses work when it is offered him is arrested and sent up for a term as a vagrant. The workhouse is a terrible place of them, especially is the sun is getting warm, and this move has had a good effect.

Mr. Wade Brown, of Woodville, has gone up the Cumberland river to accept a position as engineer on one of the Ryman boats.

Capt. J. S. Tyner and Mr. B. F. Lester, of the Cumberland river boat line, have returned to their home in Nashville after a business trip to the city.

Capt. Thomas Ryman, Jr., who suddenly lost his mind recently, is reported improving at Hot Springs, Ark.

The Queen City left Louisville for Memphis yesterday. One of the signal stations for the information of the operators of boats on the Ohio river has been changed. This change is that of taking away the service from Oil City, Pa., and moving it to Franklin, Pa. Franklin is about twenty miles below Oil City. It is at the mouth of French Creek, on the Allegheny. It is claimed that at times French Creek pours out a torrent of water which is not recorded because the weather bureau receives no report from that point. By locating a station at Franklin the reports of the rise in French Creek and that from Oil City can be sent ahead in time to warn river men who have interests at stake.

A Dandy for Burns. Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends as I am confident there is no better made. 'It is a dandy for burns.' Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c, $1 bottle.

Feeding Our Neighbors. Word was received that three car loads of cabbage were unloaded in the Ohio river Monday at Paducah by the I. C. R. R. They were consigned to different firms but they would not accept them, so it was decided to let them float down the river. When they got as far as East Metropolis they were met by a large crowd of river men and several skiff loads were secured. If cabbage kills, Metropolis will be a blank, as most every family secured a cabbage.—Metropolis Journal-Republican.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist Shullsburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c, $1.

Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co., Paducah, Ky.

KENTUCKY NEWS TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

Cotton in Graves.

Mayfield, Ky., April 5.—W. T. Lowe, the Dublin cotton ginner, says that the effort to profitably produce cotton in that section of Graves county last year was a success in every detail, and that the rumor is misleading that he would move his ginning plant away, which report is wholly unfounded, as cotton growing in and around Dublin was a success.

The government report shows that there were over 2,500 bales of cotton grown in Graves and Fulton counties, and that it brought farmers over $100,000.

Several men were playing cards when Johnson, it is said, suddenly came up and fired into the crowd, striking Hall. He claimed that he was shooting at another man, and that the killing of Hall was an accident. Johnson escaped.

Got Fourteen Years.

Lagrange, Ky., April 5.—Charles Wheeler was given a sentence of 14 years in the penitentiary for complicity in the murder of Jack Maxfield, on May 1, 1902. The killing was the result of a long standing feud between Maxfield and Lucian Wheeler and his son, Charles Wheeler. W. P. Kelley and his son, Morris Kelley, all of good standing in this county. The defendants asked to be tried separately.

Secured the Girl at Last.

Henderson, Ky., April 5.—George Presley, a widower, aged 27 years, of Evansville, and Emma Hare, aged sixteen, of Henderson, Ky., were married at Evansville yesterday just as the message was received from her father to prevent the union. Presley went to Henderson last week to marry the girl and was attacked by her father and six brothers and badly beaten.

Central City, Ky., April 5.—The franchise for electric lights and railway were sold by City Clerk C. H. Blanford. B. F. Creel was the purchaser of both franchises. The conditions under which they were sold are that work shall be commenced on both plants within sixty days and that the electric light plant shall be completed in eight months and the street railway in eighteen months.

Well Known by Dentists.

Owensboro, Ky., April 5.—Dr. J. H. Taylor, one of the best known dentists in the state, died after a long illness at his home in this city. He was born in Grafton county, New Hampshire, September 4, 1836, and came to Kentucky in 1856 and located at Elizabethtown. He moved from Elizabethtown to Hancock county and in 1864 came to Owensboro, where he resided ever since. He is survived by several children. He was a gentleman of the old school.

CATARRH CONQUERED.

Remarkable Cures Follow Introduction of New Drug, Ascatco.

New York, April 4.—Evidence of the wonderful cures effected by the new Austrian discovery, ascatco, in catarrh, asthma and hay fever, continue to pour in from all parts of the country. Catarrh evidently this time has met its master. Consular reports show that obstinate cases have been cured by 500 drops. The dose is minute, being but seven drops twice daily.

The Austrian dispensary, No. 6, East 14th street, New York City, has been empowered to carry on the work in this country of stamping out these three dreaded diseases, and to this end is sending trial bottles free by mail, on application to persons in all parts of the country.

NOT YET OVER

TAX RECEIPTS SHOWING OVER-CHARGE NEVER TURNED IN.

Many Wonder Why the Sheriff Does Not Employ a Man to Refund, Instead of County.

It is claimed by some who profess to know that the report of State Inspector Hines regarding the sheriff's over-collection of taxes in this county will not by any means settle the matter.

One man stated today: "This report is all right so far as it goes, and the county, by appointing a man to pay back to the taxpayers the money found to have been overcollected by the sheriff, has done all that could reasonably be expected of it, but it does not follow that this will prevent complications.

"The inspector came here and went over the books and checked off the receipts on hand, but I know what I am talking about when I say that there are hundreds of receipts showing overcollections, which are yet to be heard from. When these begin to come in, what will be done? The county can never pay the total amount of overcollection until the tax receipts are all collected and the exact amount secured. These receipts may come in at intervals from now until next Christmas. I know one man who has a whole pocketful of receipts that were not counted in by the state inspector, and are not in his report because he did not have the receipts of hundreds of other people who paid too much taxes. Then there is another whole year—1902, of which no investigation has been made."

Another question that the taxpayers are beginning to ask is, Why should the county pay a man to refund the money when the whole thing is the fault of the sheriff? Why not let the sheriff name and pay him? Why should the county go to any expense when the county is not the least to blame?
